

A Study on Child Support

In subgroups of four, read and study the information on the topic you selected. Suggested resource includes

U.S. Department of Health and Human Services
Child Support Handbook

https://www.acf.hhs.gov/sites/default/files/programs/css/child_support_handbook_with_toc.pdf

- Finding the Noncustodial Parent
- Establishing Fatherhood
- Establishing the Support Order
- Collecting Support
- Where the Money Goes
- Working Across Borders
- Noncustodial Parents' Rights and Responsibilities

1. Study and explain the material by:

Clarify the contents by discussing the important issues. What conclusions can be drawn from this text?

Create examples, illustrations, or applications of the information or idea.

Identify points that are confusing or with which you disagree. Why are the points confusing or why do you disagree?

Argue with the text; develop an opposing point of view. How would you change it and why?

Assess how well you understand the material. What conclusions can you draw about the validity of information?

2. Assign jobs to group members such as facilitator, timekeeper, recorder, or spokesperson.

3. Your group will present the material to the class.

4. You will be assessed by Rubric for Group Project.