

Building Blocks Graphic Organizer

Write the physical development of a preschool child in the top block. Add the information related to each type of development to the other blocks. Re-read information in all blocks. Complete document with a summary sentence.

Summary Sentence:

Write the physical development of a school-age child in the top block. Add the information related to each type of development to the other blocks. Re-read information in all blocks. Complete document with a summary sentence.

Summary Sentence:
