

Human Services Careers

Students will research three careers in the areas of consumer services, counseling and mental health services, early childhood development services, family and community services or personal care services.

	Career #1	Career #2	Career #3	Additional relevant information
Area in Human Services
Job title/description
Education and Training
Personal traits needed
Skills required
License/Certifications Required
Salary
Work Conditions				