

Human Services Career Research Assignment

Research and read information from reliable sources, including print media, the internet and the campus guidance counselor on specific careers. Assignment must include the following: career cluster, possible courses/training needed for the career, possible CTSO to join, career preparation needed and any summer plans such as training, employment and service/volunteer work that could add to knowledge of the career.

Suggested topics:

Career Cluster Pathways

Human Services

Child care worker, social worker, cosmetologist, funeral director, licensed professional counselor, massage therapist, personal fitness trainer, school counselor / psychologist, certified financial planner, consumer advocate *other career topics may be chosen with teacher approval.