

(Key) Anticipation Guide – Leaving on a Jet Plane

Prior to the start of this lesson, place a check mark by each statement you THINK is true. At the conclusion of the lesson reread each statement and place a check mark by each statement you KNOW is true. Provide information that PROVES other statements are not true. You may use the back of this sheet if additional space is needed.

Knowledge before the lesson	Statements	Knowledge after lesson
	1. Domestic travel is considered to be travel to one of the 50 contiguous states.	✓
	2. International travel is considered departure from the legal boundaries of the United States to visit other countries.	✓
	3. If you change your mind, the passport application fee and the execution fee are refundable.	The passport application fee and the execution fee are non-refundable.
	4. The Smart Traveler Enrollment Program (STEP) is a free service to allow U.S. citizens and nationals traveling abroad to enroll their trip with the nearest U.S. Embassy or Consulate.	✓
	5. It is always important to know how to locate the nearest embassy or conservator in each country you are visiting.	It is always important to how to locate the nearest embassy or consulate in each country you are visiting.
	6. Before you plan on visiting a country, find out about any travel alerts and warnings that might be associated with the country.	✓
	7. In countries like China, a lot of people speak English. It would not be worth the investment to hire someone to interpret for you.	In countries like China, very few people speak English. It would be worth the investment to hire someone to interpret for you.
	8. You should also leave a copy of the itinerary with family or a friend in case you need to be reached in an emergency.	✓