

Needs vs. Wants

It is important to be able to distinguish between our financial needs and wants. List some items that are necessary for you to purchase with your income and a few items that you would like to purchase. Add a value to the items.

