

Name: _____ Period: _____ Date: _____

Saving the Environment Quiz (Key)

- b 1. The main function of the Environmental Protection Agency is:
- Keeping our world clean
 - To see that laws concerning our environment passed by congress are implemented.
 - To create laws to protect our environment
- d 2. All of the following EXCEPT help limit harmful emissions in our environment.
- walk instead of driving your car
 - carpool
 - keep your car tuned
 - remove the muffler from your car
- b 3. Some clothing such as fleece gloves, scarves and jackets are made from:
- old tires
 - plastic bottles
 - wool
- b 4. You can reduce energy use by:
- staying inside when it is cold
 - turning off lights when not in use
 - using older appliances
- c 5. Older adults and young children should not do strenuous activity outside if the air quality is labeled .
- healthy
 - unhealthy for sensitive groups
 - unhealthy

Matching

- Clean Water Act
 - Clean Air Act
 - Chemical Protection
 - Food, Drug and Cosmetic Act
 - OSHA
- e 6. This law makes sure employers provide a safe and healthy environment for their employees.
- d 7. This law protects us from unhealthy residue levels of pesticides in our food.
- a 8. This law provides us with safe drinking water.
- b 9. This law regulates emissions from automobiles.
- c 10. The FIFRA limits the sale of chemicals that might be harmful to the environment.

Name: _____ Period: _____ Date: _____

True or False

- T F 11. Acid rain is caused by acidic pollutants such as sulfur oxides in the air when it rains.
- T F 12. The use of electricity has no effect on acid rain.
- T F 13. Plants are not affected by acid rain.
- T F 14. Emissions from automobiles and pollutants from manufacturing cause ozone problems.
- T F 15. Breathing ozone can trigger chest pain, breathing problems and throat irritations.