

Tower of Information

Individually, create a 3-D freestanding tower. Display text and graphics (which may be drawn) on the four panels/flaps. The tower will be centered around identifying ways to provide an emotionally safe work environment. Place the information and graphics on the tower prior to cutting and gluing. Be prepared to share your tower of information with the class

