

Name _____ Period _____ Date _____

- | | | | |
|----------------------|------------------------|-----------------------------|----------------------|
| A. Convention | E. Luxury Hotel | I. Suite | M. Budget Hotels |
| B. Trade Show | F. Resort Hotel | J. Time-Share | N. Dormitory |
| C. Exhibit Hall | G. Long Stay guest | K. Limited Service Property | O. Hostel |
| D. Convention Center | H. Extended Stay guest | L. Motels | P. Conference Center |

Match the correct term with each definition below by writing in the correct letter for each term.

- A smaller property that provides fewer services and is less expensive than a full-service hotel.
- The space where a trade show is held.
- Lowest rates and least service properties.
- Guests that stay 30 or more days on the property.
- An inexpensive place to stay where sleeping rooms, bathrooms and kitchen facilities are shared.
- A place that caters to a leisure traveler and provides entertainment, recreation, and relaxation.
- Provides the highest level of amenities, service, room furnishings, public spaces and technology.
- A large sleeping room filled with beds for many guests.
- An exhibit where people sell goods and services.
- Hotel accommodation that consists of more than one room.
- A property where 60% or more of the occupancy is generated by conferences.
- The first limited-service hotels
- A large meeting usually sponsored by a group for its members.
- The owner owns the right to use the unit for a specific length of time per year.
- A large building designed to hold large meetings, conventions and trade shows; usually no sleeping rooms. Developed by the city in which it is located.
- Guests that stay 5-29 days in the property.